NORTH LIMA

Foreword

The sound of happy voices, the spirit of good sportsmanship, the joys and the sorrows, the molding of ideals and aspirations—all combine to enrich our experiences at North Lima High.

In the hope of creating a worthy souvenir of memorable days at North Lima High for students and friends, we, the Staff of 1960, present this edition of the ECHO.

The success of your yearbook has been made possible through the generous cooperation of students, faculty, and patrons.

When you turn the pages of your ECHO in the years ahead, may your minds be flooded with happy memories, and you can say, "That was the year that I accomplished the most."

Let's get aboard this "Truck Load of Memories" and follow us as we sketch the story of this year . . .

Dedication

They have understood our problems, assisted us with patience of steel, listened to our complaints with an admirable smile, inspired us with confidence, encouraged us when we were disheartened, and enhanced our chance for success.

We are thankful for their determined effort to make our school a better place for us to receive a basic education. Words can't express our appreciation for their various contributions; but to show how much we love, honor, and respect them, the Senior Class gratefully dedicates the 1960 ECHO to the citizens of North Lima, and especially to our parents.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1960, upon our departure wish to bestow our thanks and gratitude to all the teachers who have, from the first to the twelfth grade, seen us through many trying times.

To the junior class as a whole, we, the senior class, will Mr. Snapp and Mr. Hood's good and worthwhile advice in their coming senior year. Also, to the class of 1961, we will Mr. Ward's kindness and friendliness as a sponsor.

On this eighth day of June, nineteen hundred and sixty, we bequeath the following of our most precious possessions.

To Marilyn Baird and Carolyn Shafer, Pat Cason wills her height. Sandra Osterling wills to Gary Richards all the heartaches and headaches of the "Lima Lite" plus a gun if things become too unbearable. To Tim Hill, John James leaves his love of and skill in basketball. Beverly Koonse wills her kind and sweet ways to Donna Gray. To Mel Bowen, Gary Manchester leaves his love of mechanics. John Maxgay leaves part of his car to Sam Harshman, the rattle. Joe Merlo bequeaths his drawing ability to Billy Leigh Parker with best wishes. Phyllis Plummer and Ruth Morse leave their pleasing personalities to Susan Lawless and Katheline Bush. Shelia Harshman leaves her love of music and dancing to Joann Beard and Barbara Moore and hopes that they will carry a box of bandaids around for their blisters. To Connie Sampsell, Lynn Glassford leaves her headaches of the Student Council presidency. Barbara Quinby leaves to Kay Brooke, Betty Orr, and Mary McCarty all the fun of taking care of the library. To Jack Crouse and Rich McGregor, Dave Tilton leaves his curly hair and also the instructions to use five pin curls every night. Bob McCarty leaves his love for photography to John Henley. Carol Bregar bequeaths her vocal chords to Elaine Smith and Wanda Moore to use in time of distress. Jim Brown leaves his ability to sleep in classes to Rich Zagotti. To Bob Culp, Jon Culp leaves his natural ability for getting into mischief. Vince Mellott leaves to Glen Wenger his popularity. To Pearle Hartley, Marcia MacFarland leaves her sweet smile. Janet Nichols leaves her unusual spelling ability to Earlene Anderson with good luck. Don Marinelli leaves to Steve Evankowich the use of his car when Steve's can't make it up the hill. Dennis Klein leaves to Bill Howard the skill of high jumping plus a pair of stilts for a helper. To Barbara Wehr and Bonnie Houpt, Virginia Weber leaves her witty jokes. Rhoda Zook leaves her ability for serious thinking to Pat Elser. To Julie Hall, Carolyn White leaves all the fun of cheerleading. To Joyce Peters, Jerry Hoover leaves his red hair. Ed Pfau leaves his skill in flying airplanes, model airplanes of course, to Donald Hiney. To Gilbert Coffman, Bob McClain leaves his skill in math class. Ronnie Peters leaves to Judy Moore all the rush of meeting the deadlines for the "Echo." Ed Perry leaves to Kenny Gorman, and Warren Gillam the fun of playing pool. After school of course! Gary Martin and Don Swope leave all the fun of souping-up their cars to Andy Kirk. To Jim Coler, George Kugler leaves his ability to get into the biggest arguments with the asking of a simple question. De Vere Beach bequeaths to Louis Day, his strange power over women. To Jack Lowe, Roger Alcorn leaves his quiet and considerate ways. Jim Hetric leaves to Kenny Eichorn all the fun of being in school.

Now that we are departing and have given away our most precious possessions, we are sure that we will always remember North Lima High and all the people who help to make it such a wonderful school.

We, the Class of 1960, do hereby affix and ascribe our seal.

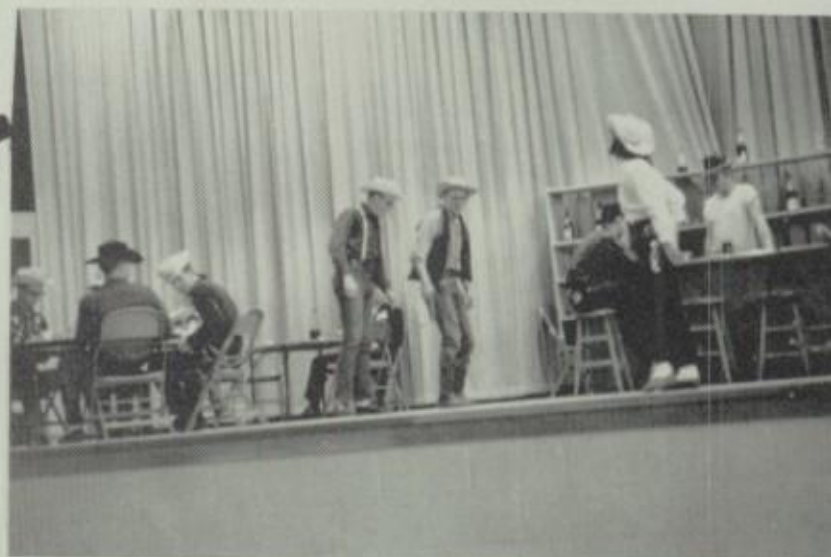

CLASS FLOWER: Red and White Rose.

CLASS COLORS: Red and White.

CLASS MOTTO: "It matters not how long you live, but how well."

*Farewell
From the Seniors!!*

Memories . . . Yes, that's all we have now. As we come to the last page of this book we also come to the end of the realities of our high school days. We can return to them only by remembering. That which we have gained will never be lost as long as we are able to board this Truck Load of Memories . . . our memories of yesterday and dreams of tomorrow. We shall never forget the happy moments . . . the surprises . . . the thrills . . . the friendships we've all had together.

Words just can't express how much it has meant to us to be able to work with a wonderful person like Mr. Fabilli. We would like to thank our devoted Echo Staff. We appreciate all of their long hours of hard work. As for the teachers and Mr. Snapp, their untiring help and understanding have been invaluable during these past years.

All we will have to do now is to open our 1960 Echo and we will again be with our beloved North Lima High. "Lest We Forget" our Alma Mater, our friends . . . our teachers, now and then, let's get aboard this Truck Load of Memories . . . this 1960 Echo, and be together again.
